

The NJ do not call law is great and should not be repealed.
Companies should not be allowed to be in the business of harassing people, be they prior customers or not. By this logic, if a customer has done business with a company, they have their contact info and can contact the business if they want. Keep the NJ do-not-call law intact.

-marcis jansons